Second and Third Sundays of Advent 10th December & 17th December 2023

The focus for the middle two Sundays of Advent is always on St John the Baptist, his ministry and mission. He provides a powerful model for us in our day:

- John is the voice "crying in wilderness" – often it can feel like our proclamation of God's love and our call to worship is falling on deaf ears and on hardened hearts, but John reminds us that this is the lot of prophets in every age.
- John is the one who points to the Lamb of God – in the Invited video this week Sr Cooie talked about how a friend of hers persistently and patiently invited her to come to a prayer group and how once there the Lord Jesus started to really make his love clear to her. "When we provide an opportunity for an encounter face to face with the living God, hearts and souls can't not be transformed."
- John is the one who "prepares a way for the Lord" – rather like those TV shows which encourage us to declutter to be happy, John's mission urges us to declutter our lives to make room for the coming of the Lord.
- John is the one who bears witness, ultimately by his martyrdom – and we are called to bear witness by living a clearly Christian life. In Sr Cooie's words, "We have a shared responsibility for speaking the Truths of our faith when opportunities present themselves, passing on the faith through word and example, correcting error when we hear it, becoming people of prayer at home, actively participating in our parish life and worship and living by example so that those in the culture around us can noticeably acclaim 'see how they love one another.' Be like St John the Baptist in this Sunday's Gospel, proclaiming, both subtly and directly as prudence dictates, the mysteries of our faith in the wilderness of a culture barren and thirsting for God."

Mass Responses for Second Sunday of Advent

PSALM RESPONSE: Let us see, O Lord, your mercy, and give us your saving help.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia! Alleluia! Prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight, and all mankind shall see the salvation of God. Alleluia!

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Jerusalem, arise and stand upon the heights, and behold the joy which comes to you from God.

Mass Responses for Third Sunday of Advent

PSALM RESPONSE: My soul rejoices in my God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia! Alleluia! The spirit of the Lord has been given to me. He has sent me to bring the good news to the poor. Alleluia!

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Say to the faint of heart: Be strong and do not fear. Behold, our God will come, and he will save us.

CAFOD Israeli-Palestinian Crisis Appeal

There will be no Christmas tree or traditional festivities this year in Bethlehem, the place of Jesus Christ's birth, in response to the thousands killed in the conflict in the Holy Land. Instead, the focus will be on praying for peace. We pray with them that '... Christ the Prince of Peace will guide all devastated by this conflict into the ways of truth, reconciliation, and respectful co-existence.' Please support the appeal if you can. Donations can be made directly: <https://cafod.org.uk/give>

Supporting our local foodbanks During the Christmas season we tend to treat ourselves to goodies - but perhaps we can also take a moment to think of those in our community who are struggling with the cost-of-living crisis? It's easy to add some extra items to your shopping trolley and foodbanks depend on our support.

COP28 concludes on December 12th, but the climate crisis continues: "May COP28 represent a historic step forward in responding with wisdom and foresight to the clear and present threats to the universal common good", says Pope Francis, reaffirming that "the future of us all depends on the present that we now choose".

Mary's Meals would like to thank everyone in the parish for helping raise a terrific £881.72 - which means Mary's Meals will be able to feed 46 children one good meal every school day for a whole year because of our support. Their latest campaign 'double the love' doubles donations: <https://www.marysmeals.org.uk/>

CAFOD World Gifts - a range of virtual charity gifts. Please take a catalogue after Mass or visit <https://worldgifts.cafod.org.uk/>

If you have a box of numbered Gift Aid envelopes these also include one that can be used at Christmas. If using the contactless device, select 'Christmas Offering' and please enter your details to sign up for Gift Aid (if you haven't already done so on the device). Or donate cash in a named envelope via the offertory collection; these contributions are also currently tax rebated. If you are donating at Farncombe, please use a St Edmund's envelope, not a St John's one!
